Re: Case No. 22-cv-01445, Rodney v City of New York, et al.

Dear Judge Wang:

As the Court likely recalls, my firm, with co-counsel, represents Plaintiff in the case above. As directed by the Court (Dkt. No. 43), I write jointly with counsel for Defendants to provide a monthly status report. I apologize that this letter is slightly late.

The parties have exchanged discovery requests and responses, limited to “phase 1” discovery, pending the motion to dismiss. The parties have also conferred on Defendants’ responses to Plaintiff’s requests to admit, and Plaintiff is waiting for Defendants to commit to a date for final positions and responses before moving on various objections.

As far as settlement is concerned, as noted in the two previous letters, the Court held a preliminary, confidential settlement discussion on November 3, and Plaintiff served a formal demand that evening. Nothing further has taken place, and the parties believe a further conference would be premature at this time.

Finally, as far as the motion to dismiss, the motion is fully briefed, and Plaintiff has requested oral argument (with a request to allow a law student to argue a major portion of the motion) as noted at Dkt. No. 65. Plaintiff has also filed a motion to supplement the record on the motion to dismiss, as Defendants’ admissions have removed one of Defendants’ major factual contentions on the motion from dispute. Dkt. No. 69. That motion is unopposed. If the Court does not require oral argument, the motion is fully submitted – and if it elects to have oral argument, the motion will be fully submitted thereafter.

As always, we thank the Court for its time and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

J. Remy Green
